WHAT IS THE SEL?

United Way of Northern Shenandoah Valley's Society of Emerging Leaders is a group of young adults in their 20's and 30's, who make an annual individual pledge of $250 or more. By actively participating in annual campaigns, volunteering and community building projects, these Emerging Leaders are making a lasting, positive impact in our community.

WHILE GIVING ALONE HAS ITS OWN REWARD, A SEL MEMBERSHIP BRINGS ALONG ADDITIONAL OPPORTUNITIES:

- Invitations to all year-round leadership networking and volunteer events
- Special volunteer opportunities and exclusive committee work like United Way's Financial Literacy Day.
- Networking opportunities which connect SEL members with established community leaders, allowing them to grow personally and professionally.
- Exclusive seminars taught by industry experts structured to help you and to help your community
