EMERGING LEADERS

TOMORROW'S LEADERS

United Way's Emerging Leaders are a dynamic group all about making connections – with a purpose. Forget your average networking night or conference. With Emerging Leaders, you'll have opportunities to give back to the Shenandoah Valley at events while meeting other ambitious and passionate young professionals.

We are building a stronger, healthier Shenandoah Valley with a focus on advancing United Way's education goal. Through professional development, educational opportunities, volunteerism and networking events, Emerging Leaders end goal is to make a lasting impact in our community.

Six reasons to go for it:

Participation in "Lunch & Learn" professional development sessions

Opportunities to respond to the community's urgent needs with last minute volunteer opportunities

Participate in the annual Bring the Basic's drive to support local needs

Opportunity to serve as a Community Investment volunteer in Fund Distribution

Invitation-only social events

Recognition in the United Way NSV Annual Report as an Emerging Leader
